IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

GROSS DOLLAR SALES

The total gross dollar sales volume, all plants, of goods, services, and information furnished to the precast concrete structures industry.

SPECIAL DUES COMPUTATIONS

Any company or subsidiary desiring separate PCI associate membership may file a separate sales declaration as a separate company and so state that it is not to be included in the parent company's declaration of sales. Separate membership rights and voting privileges are thereby accorded. Associate members located outside the United States compute dues based only on the gross dollar volume of sales within the United States.

SUPPLIER'S REPRESENTATIVE

An independent individual or company selling only goods, services, and information produced by PCI supplier associate members. Importers and trading houses are not eligible for membership as manufacturers' representatives, but may qualify as associate members. Manufacturer's representatives' dues shall be $2000.00 annually.
